

BIOGRAPHICAL INFORMATION of EXPERT WITNESSES

Edwin Vieira, Jr.

Edwin Vieira, Jr., holds four degrees from Harvard: A.B. (Harvard College), A.M. & PH.D. (Harvard Graduate School of Arts and Sciences), and J.D. (Harvard Law School).

For over 30 years Dr. Vieira has been a practicing attorney and lecturer, specializing in constitutional law. In the United States Supreme Court he has successfully argued or briefed the cases leading to the landmark decisions Aboud v. Detroit Board of Education, Chicago Teachers Union v. Hudson, and Communications Workers of America v. Beck.

He has written numerous monographs and scholarly journals, and lectured extensively in academia and throughout the country. His latest scholarly works are Pieces of Eight: The Monetary Powers and Disabilities of the United States Constitution (2002), a comprehensive study of American monetary law and history viewed from a constitutional perspective, and How to Dethrone the Imperial Judiciary (2004), a study of the problems of irresponsible "judicial supremacy", and how to deal with them.

He is also the co-author (under a nom de plume) of the political novel CRASHMAKER: A Federal Affaire (2000), a not-so-fictional story of an engineered "CRASH" of the Federal Reserve System, and the political revolution that it causes.

Dr. Vieira is an NRA certified firearms instructor in several disciplines, and is now working on projects concerned with the constitutional Militia, the Second Amendment, and the right to keep and bear arms. His first book in this area is Constitutional "Homeland Security", Volume One, The Nation in Arms (2007). He resides in Front Royal Virginia.

Lawrence Parks

Lawrence (Larry) Parks is the Executive Director of the Foundation for the Advancement of Monetary Education and the Host of The Larry Parks Show, aired weekly on Time Warner Channel 56 in Manhattan. Mr. Parks holds a Ph. D. In Operations Research from The Polytechnic University where he has served as an adjunct professor at the graduate level in business and economics for many years. He has very broad experience in business and finance and has been a contributing writer in The Economist, The Washington Times, The Free Market, National Review, The United States Congressional Record, Pensions and Investments, The Labor Study Journal, The Freeman, The Houston Chronicle and a long list of other popular publications.

He is a frequent guest lecturer and advisor on monetary policy within the broad financial sector and is the author of What Does Mr. Greenspan Really Think?, an essay on the ideas and philosophy of the famous Federal Reserve Chairman from many personal conversations and the Chairman's speeches when outside of the purview of the US media.

He is an active member of many civic and social organizations, and is an outspoken leader in the fight for honest monetary weights and measures.
